VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1893.

NO. 82

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—The Arlons Swiss Bell Swingers will be at the opera house Dec. 13.

—W. H. Travis, an aged and well-known citizen, died Saturday night.

—Caz Garland was placed in jail Sunday, charged with having burned Mr. Bowling's house.

—J. H. Marlow is very bad off with typhoid fever, and the doctors have but little hope of his recovery.

—Ella Bowling, the wealthiest man in the northeast, died at his home in Laurel county, suffered the loss of having his house burned Thursday night.

—Craig Gragg is not dead by a great big lot. Although there is a bullet hole clear through his body, he was on the streets of Pittsburg Saturday. When a doctor told him he was certain to die, he replied with the assertion that he "was not going to do any such a blank, blank thing."

—George A. Begley, formerly a citizen of this county, was killed in Clay county on Red Bird creek, on the 6th inst. Mr. Begley was attending a sale of some property when he got into a difficulty with Lee Wages, who shot him. Felix Bowling was also in the difficulty and received a slight wound in the neck. Wages was painfully wounded in the shoulder.

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of James M. Cook.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from the life that now is, to the life beyond death, our brother James M. Cook, on the 7th day of December, 1893, and whereas, this lodge of A. F. M., No. 184, of which he was a most worthy member, keenly feels the greatness of his loss, and desiring to place upon our records a suitable expression of our appreciation of his virtues, as a memorial to his untarnished character, therefore,

Resolved 1st, That in the death of our brother, J. M. Cook, we recognize the providence of God, whose wisdom is unquestionable, and whose right to rule and govern his own creatures are humbly acknowledged, and accept the great loss in the death of our brother, as designed to perfect his happiness in a better life, and to impress upon the hearts of us who remain, the importance of being also ready.

Resolved 2nd, That in the life of the deceased we see the embodiment of an honest man and sincere Christian; a neighbor whom all men loved, a citizen whose life was ever ready to respond to the highest good of his country. That in every relation in life he met its obligations cordially, and made for himself a character spotless and pure.

Resolved 3d, That he hereby assure the family of our deceased brother of the sincere sympathy of this lodge for them in their loss of an affectionate father, as also in the pride it affords us in recognizing in him a good name more precious than gold, and a character bequeathed to them, brilliant with honor, and untarnished and above reproach.

Resolved 4th, That the members will wear the usual badge of mourning thirty days.

Resolved 5th, That these resolutions be placed upon the records of this lodge, and published in the Interior Journal, and furnished the family of the deceased.

DANVILLE.

(Advocate.)

—Farris & Whitley sold to Simon Wehl 160 head of export cattle at 4c delivered, Saturday.

—Mr. John T. Thurman, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Thurman, of this city, and Mrs. Annie Morrison, a handsome young widow, of Lexington, were married Tuesday.

Joseph LeBrandt, who assumes the leading comedy role in "Is Marriage a Failure," which appears at Walton's Opera House, Saturday, 16th, is essentially a character comedian whose methods are original, refined and free from rough play. His conception of the character of Corydon Foxglove, the eccentric old lawyer, whose cupidity allows him to marry for money, is described as extremely amusing. For four seasons, two of which were spent in metropolitan cities, Mr. LeBrandt has been identified with this character, and his success continues unabated. He is surrounded by a company of clever artists, including the beautiful and accomplished actress, Mrs. Joseph LeBrandt, and talented child artist, Little Irene.

—The postoffice at Nipp, Rockcastle county, will be discontinued after the 15th.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore will fill his pulpit here at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning, and at Logan's Creek in the afternoon at 3.

—A Sunday-School pupil on being asked what lesson was taught by Lot's wife turning into a pillar of salt, replied: "It teaches us not to be too fresh."

—Rev. W. J. Ward has accepted a call to the First Baptist church at Moberly, Mo., and ordered his paper changed from Hamilton, Mo., to that place.

—Rev. John Allen, the holiness preacher of California, tells the people of Centerville, Mo., that nightily greet him that in all probability time will be no more after 1896, certainly not later than 1890.

—The congregation at the Presbyterian church voted by an overwhelming majority to retain Rev. W. A. Stagmaker as pastor, but he has not signified his intention yet. Everybody hopes he will remain.

—Rev. Sam Jones has severed his relations with the North Georgia Conference, as Bishop Haygood decided that there was no law under which a preacher could resort to evangelical work as a specialty.

—The Courier-Journal says that in Louisville there are, including chapels and Catholic altars, 200 places, with a capacity for 72,700 people. That is to say that 72,700 persons in the city of Louisville could go to church at one time.

—Rev. H. C. Morrison is drawing large crowds to the meeting at the Methodist church, which seem greatly interested in the Gospel he so eloquently and earnestly expounds and the prospect is that there will be great revival of religion. All the other churches gave up services Sunday night in respect to the meeting and the church could hardly hold the people that thronged to it. Services are held daily at 10:30 a. m. and 6:45 p. m.

—The Versailles Sun says that Uncle Joe Hopper's meeting there continues with additions every day. Last Sunday 25 were baptized, and hundreds are attracted to his meetings by his "old fashioned religion," who have not been inside of a church for years. His simple and earnest way of telling Christ's love for the sinner is more effective than oratory and eloquence, and the Sun considers him the equal of any evangelist in the land.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. Robt. Aurtin died Friday of pneumonia, and was buried Saturday.

—Mr. Letcher Owsley has secured the position of local correspondent for the various daily papers.

—The grip epidemic seems to be getting worse. Most every one you meet can tell you what's best to take for it.

—The remains of Eld. J. C. Frank were temporarily buried in Mrs. Dan Anderson's lot. Later they will be taken to Flemingsburg, their final resting place. Eld. Frank left an estate valued at $18,000.

—Miss Francis Griffin, a noted temperance speaker, will deliver a free lecture at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Children's Loyal League. Everybody is invited.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dunn, of Danville, have been visiting relatives here.

—Col. D. R. Collier, of Louisville, is in town. Miss Alice Fox Young, who came home sick from school in Virginia, is convalescent. Uncle Joe Weisiger, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever is much better.

HUBBLE.

—Everybody has killed hogs and we now have a season of rejoicing.

—Turkeys seem to be going off low and slow, on account of no money among the laboring class in the city to buy them.

—Mrs. Duncan's horse became frightened at the train a few days ago and it was reported that in trying to get out of her carriage and hold the horse she was pretty badly used up, but we are glad to state that it is not as bad as reported.

—Mrs. M. G. McClure, of Casey county, is with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hammond, for a few days while on her way to visit her son in Lexington. Billy Latin is in the neighborhood with his old gray and spring wagon looking for a location. Billy looks very natural and it is to be hoped that he will come back.

—Frank Holtzclaw and wife are the happiest people in the neighborhood since Dr. Cook presented them with a fine girl. It is said that W. H. and wife are already imagining that it can say "grand pa and grandma." Moses Miller has moved to the Col. Underwood place.

—Uncle Greenberry Bright has taken winter quarters with his son, Squire Bright. James Blackberry is the champion corn buster. He says he husked 13 shocks before dinner the other day.

—The Four Seasons hotel will open again Feb. 1, the difficulties existing between the American and English members of the directory having been adjusted.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Our minstrel troupe visited the city of Crab Orchard Saturday night, and gave an entertainment.

—We were wrongly informed about Mr. Talbott's renting Mrs. Egbert's store, which is still vacant.

—Mr. Charles Redd is in Manchester winding up his wife's estate there, left her by her brother, Mr. Gilbert.

—There is no photographer here now, as Mr. Cable has decided not to come, having gone into other business at Mt. Vernon.

—There will be memorial services at Walnut Flat next Sunday to the memory of Rev. R. H. Caldwell, of whose goodness too much can hardly be said.

—We have had a sweet little namesake at Mr. Charles Redd's for three months, and were only made aware of the fact by its mother Saturday. So you may know we feel very proud. She is a little beauty, and as bright and sweet as pretty.

—Mr. R. H. Bronaugh has been quite sick for the past week with something like flux, but is better. Mrs. Pence and daughter, Miss Florence, have been with Mrs. J. H. Stephens and Mrs. Lawrence this week. Mr. Holdman Stuart is mingling with old friends after a lengthy stay in Pittsburg, Ky., where he has been in business. Mrs. Margaret Gornley has been sick for three or four days.

Hustonsville Christian College.

[Adv.]

—The desk at which the principal of Christian College writes is over 90 years of age. It is of solid walnut and is a highly prized specimen of antiquated furniture.

—Jones Baughman, from Kentucky University, spent Thanksgiving at home. Jones has made a wise choice in selecting Kentucky University, in which to complete his education. No school in the South ranks higher.

—The astronomy class in Christian College has traced about 25 constellations. Misses VanArsdel and Clay are experts in this line and are making this highly instructive and profitable to the class.

—Christian College is to have a Normal Department, beginning Jan. 23d, and continuing 18 weeks. The record that Christian College has already made in preparing teachers for this work should be sufficient inducement for all teachers to avail themselves of this rare opportunity.

—Miss Donaldson, of Spencer county, and Messrs. Donaldson, Courtney and Newman, from Kentucky University, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Jennie Carpenter. A few young friends in the neighborhood met them and all were royally treated at a most sumptuous dinner.

—Christmas has already begun in Hustonsville. The stores are filled with a nice selection of goods, and flocks of children from every quarter are gathering to look and spend their "change." The counter at Weatherford's looks as if old Santa-Claus had unloaded his whole train there.

—The entertainment at Christian College on the evening of Nov. 30th was a success in every way. The chapel was crowded and a number left not being able to get even standing room. The exercises consisted of recitations, plays, drills, etc. We have not space to mention each performance separately, but we feel fully warranted in saying that the rendition in each case was almost perfect.

—The Jolly Little Waiters' seemed to captivate the audience, the acting and singing showing first class training. The music was of an elevated character and reflected much credit upon Miss Bernetti, a most efficient teacher in that department at Christian College.

The finest train in America is conceded to be the Southwestern Limited via BIG FOUR ROUTE to New York and Boston.

This magnificent Wagner Train has been built especially for service between Cincinnati, New York and Boston, running through solid to these cities without change of cars. Composed of Elegant Coaches, Wagner Sleeping Cars, Library and Cafe Car, and Hotel Dining Car it has become famous. Complete in all of its appointments it is to-day the "king of the road."

It leaves Cincinnati at 6:00 p. m. daily from Central Union Station, making connections with all through trains from the South and lands passengers in New York City at Grand Central Station, avoiding ferry transfer. When you go East take this train.

D. B. Martin, General Passenger and Ticket Agent.

E. O. McCormick, Passenger Traffic Manager.

A Missouri girl decorated her room with pictures, and perched her best fellow's photographs on the topmost nail. She then sat down to admire her work, and lovingly remarked: "Now everything is lovely and the goose hangs high."

—Three negroes were lynched in Alabama Friday night, two for the same murder.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Louis Patton, an aged and well-known colored man, died Friday.

—On account of the inability of some of her relatives to arrive, Mrs. Hawkins was not buried until Friday afternoon.

—Jake Hommelstein, the merchant who came from Jerusalem to this place, will open a branch store at McKinney on or about Jan. 1.

—A number of our people will go to your town Saturday night next and see what they can find out about that perplexing question, "Is Marriage a Failure?"

—Madam Rumor says that one of our young merchants will take unto himself a wife in the person of a beautiful blue-eyed country lassie ere the merry holidays have come and gone.

—Wesley Cook, the negro charged with "conjuring" the Danville darkies, has been lurking in our midst for a week or more. Our colored population is keeping an eye on him and woe be unto him if he tries his "hoodoo" game on any of them.

—Some miscreant or miscreants continue to worry our people by discharging dynamite bombs in and around town. It is sincerely hoped that the rascals will be caught up with and be made to pay dearly for their fun or rather madness.

—It is related of Mr. Tone Huna, who recently moved to Columbia, that he has changed his abode 40 times in the 20 years of his married life. "They" also say that on the 1st of January and July his chickens which have been moved so often, cross their legs and patiently wait for their master to come and tie them.

—While driving a young horse the other day Mr. Samuel Reid and daughters, Misses Helen and Jennie, met with a mishap which nearly scared them out of their wits. The colt, all of a sudden and without any apparent cause, began to rear and plunge and turning suddenly smashed a wheel. This threw Mr. R. and daughters out and the old gentleman lighted on his head. The road was muddy, fortunately and very little damage was done him or the young ladies.

—Mrs. R. H. Young, of Louisville, and Mrs. Dr. Lee F. Huffman, of Lexington, are guests of their relatives, the Misses Cook. Mr. R. S. Tucker, who several years ago suffered a severe paralytic stroke is very ill and her recovery is considered doubtful. Mr. Butler, who has been confined to his bed for several months with a genuine case of typhoid fever, is rapidly improving. Mr. Time Cook and son, Will, of Garrard, have been guests of relatives here. George Weatherford has quit business at Richmond and is here with his parents. Tom Neat, of Columbia, and W. L. Evans, the commercial tourists, spent Sunday with their best girls here.

Mr. J. P. Blaise, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that State during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaise had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaise sent for the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaise regards his cure as simply wonderful.

EVERY FRIDAY.

Upon the Legislature, now in session in Virginia, will devolve the election of two United States Senators, one for the long term to begin at the end of the term to which the late Senator Harbort was elected, and the other to fill the vacancy until the end of that term, and which is now being filled by Senator Eppa Hunton by appointment. After a considerable struggle, Hon. Thomas S. Marlin, of Scottsville, was nominated by the democratic caucus, receiving 66 votes on the last ballot to Gov. Fitzhugh Lee, 56, or three more than was necessary to a choice. As there is not a single republican in the Legislature, of course this action will be promptly ratified, and it is thought that Gen. Hunton will be permitted to fill out the unexpired term. Later news says that the friends of Gov. Lee are both surprised and mortified at his defeat and charge "undue" influence was exerted with a number of the members who are out for the stuff. An effort is being made to disregard the nomination and elect Gov. Lee when a vote comes before the Legislature, but it is hoped that wiser counsel will prevail. As in war and love, so in politics all is fair, and it is the stuck pig that is first to squeal.

The House killed the bankruptcy bill 142 to 111. We have been getting along very well without a bankruptcy law since the last one went out of effect. Originally intended to protect honest debtors, it got to be the resort of every rascal who did not want to pay his debts, and between his dishonesty and the receiver's fees the creditor was left to groan, usually getting nothing, while the scamp retained nearly all of his property. Scoundrelly debtors have loop holes enough now to get out of paying their dues. They do not need such a law help them in their rascality.

MAYOR DUNCAN got turned down by the city council of Lexington in his recommendations for members of the school board. The list included the name of one woman, who was formerly employed by the mayor in the counting room of his newspaper, and whose name was scandal-mongers have coupled in a way not complimentary to either. The latter indignantly denied, but all the same the council is opposed to vindicate the lady at the expense of the school board, and quite a storm of indignation has been raised in the capital of the blue-grass.

EVEN in Chicago a jury ignorant enough to try the assassin Prendergast is hard to obtain and after nearly a week's trial the panel is incomplete. The prisoner is trying in every way to corroborate his plea of insanity and as usual in such cases is over doing it. The question of guilt being entirely eliminated, the insanity dodge is solidly relied on to save his worthless neck. We do not believe that the scamp is insane, but insane or not, the halter is mighty good medicine for his complaint.

DISPATCHES from Plano, Texas, tell of the blowing up of the safe of the National bank there by robbers, who secured all the money and other valuables worth stealing. One report is that the robbers got $10,000, and another that they got fully $50,000. Mr. T. C. Jasper, late of this county, is cashier of the bank, and much of the stock is held here. W. P. Tate owns 40 shares, George Carter 50 shares, and numerous parties in the West End have smaller amounts.

THE case of Rev. Howard, the clerical scoundrel who swindled people all over the country by making them believe that they had large fortunes left them in England, is attracting great attention. It is being tried at Jackson, Tenn., with such witnesses as Robert T. Lincoln, late minister to England, and other distinguished characters, and the prospect is that the pious fraud will do a long term with stripes on for his rascality.

It is a pleasure to observe that the Frankfort Capital is to continue after old man Johnson hies himself to Chicago. George L. Willis will become its editor, and as there is very little about the newspaper business that that bald headed sinner doesn't know, we may expect to see his genius scintillate in its columns.

THE Walton Observer is the latest Kentucky paper to ascend the flume. Its days on earth were but three and six months, which was sufficiently long to demonstrate one of two things—that it did not fill a long felt want, or that its originators and projectors were failures in the accepted idea that everybody can run a newspaper.

THE latest news from Honolulu is that the deposed queen says she had rather have $500,000 than to be placed again upon the throne. The Hawaiian matters seem very much mixed, but we hope and believe the administration will come out on top.

THE Louisville Critic doesn't take any stock in Gov. Brown's dramatic efforts against the C. O. & S. W. consolidation with the L. & N., and sensibly says: "The L. & N. is not an oppressor. It is a builder up. It is an encourager and fosterer of legitimate enterprises. It has done more for Kentucky than all the governors and legislators since the State has been organized. This demagogic attempt to curtail its growth and usefulness will fail. The C. O. & S. W. will be brought into first class condition by the L. & N. The section of the State which it traverses will be benefited by a better service. Without the L. & N. Kentucky would be a howling wilderness. It has brought her resources before the world, opened her mines, linked her fertile fields to the markets of the land, and in countless ways helped and strengthened her. If the demagogues must have something to yelp about, let them pick out some enterprise that is a detriment to the State."

THAT public office is a family snap is again demonstrated by the appointment of Henry Kremer to succeed his father as wharfmaster at Louisville. Henry used to be a legislator and slept with Gee Dawson on a memorable night.

Hess, HENLE & Co., the Louisville notion house which recently failed, will not pay over three cents on the dollar. The penitentiary is the proper place for such swindlers.

—The Colombian souvenir coin was a losing experiment. It not only failed to realize for the World's Fair the premium confidently expected, but the directors have had to pay into the United States Treasury $10,300 to defray the cost of recoining into ordinary silver currency the $1,700,000 worth of souvenirs left on hand.

—Miss Mamie Ryan, of Geneva, Wis., has used Prof. Birkholz, a Chicago hair dresser for $75,000. Miss Ryan used Birkholz' medicine with success, and the "Prof." spread broadcast, pictures of her "before and after using," which, she alleges, are so misleading as to her personal appearance that they have damaged her to the extent of the above sum.

The Henderson Gleaner says of the "Is Marriage a Failure?": "It is a bright, clean comedy, and depends on witty lines and comical, though not exaggerated, situations for its mirth-provoking qualities. The principal characters were sustained by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeBrant, who proved themselves capable artists. Little Irene is simply a gem, and her singing and dancing brought forth rounds of applause. The supporting company is excellent, and the orchestra superb. We hope this clever company will visit us again."

Chesapeake & Ohio Railway will, with one accord, train its scenery and train service. There is nothing in the way of lovely mountain views and picturesque valleys of the Virginias, to compare with that through which the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad passes. There is nothing of historic nature in America as great as a trip through the Virginias and there is no other railroad in America superior to the C. & O. in the smoothness and stability of its tracks, the F. F. V. Vestibule Limited being one of the famous trains of the world. The Chesapeake & Ohio passes through Bull Run, Manassas and other noted battle fields and is in all respects the best route for the West, North-West and South-West to the National Capital. For copy of Virginia in black and white, free and full information regarding rates and train service, address C. B. Ryan, Assistant G. P. A., Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Caledonian Literary Society of Turnersville will hold an open session of unusual interest next Saturday evening. Among the interesting features of the programme will be a debate, the young men of the society having accepted of a challenge from Prof. Johnson's school. Everybody cordially invited.

ELOPEMENT.—Mr. Will Cordier, the 19-year-old son of Photographer Frank Cordier, of Rowland, and Miss Eliza Ront, daughter of Mr. Jos. H. Ront, eloped to Jellico Thursday night and were made one. The bride is a comely young lady, some ten or twelve years her husband's senior, and a worthy one in every way.

There is a gentleman in town who has spent his entire life of nearly 40 years here, and who has traveled quite extensively, but has never been to the great town of Lancaster, and has only visited Crab Orchard once. He is one of Stanford's beaux, and the first lady who guesses his name will be given a nice Christmas present by Mr. W. H. Higgins. This offer stands good until our next issue.

To go to jail instead of to the nuptial couch must try a man's soul. That was Grant North's experience, and if reports be true, he may yet spend a term in the penitentiary before, if ever, he can claim his bride. The other night on what is said to have been the forged order of Judge C. W. Short, of Pineville, he procured license and married the judge's daughter, Mary, who is but 14 years old. They then took the train for Louisville, but a dispatch from the judge preceded them, and officers were on hand on their arrival to take the groom to jail and the bride to the Home of the Friendless. The judge followed by next train and brought his daughter home, swearing vengeance against his son-in-law, whom he says, he will prosecute for perjury to the full extent of the law. North finally got out of jail on bond, and intimates that he, too, will take a hand in invoking legal protection. He was formerly Superintendent of Schools in Bell county, and ought to have known better than to make such a break as he is charged with making.

W. E. PERKINS, of Crab Orchard, offers great reductions in clothing and ladies' cloaks for the next 30 days.
"AND the cat came back," so do all the people who see our stock of Xmas presents. Danks, the Jeweler.

LADIES, if you want nice cake for Christmas, go to W. H. Brady and get a sack of Lexington Cream Flour.
Read our advertisement and come and get a cloak and dress cheaper than you ever bought them before. Severance & Son.

The two foot ball teams, Thomas Yeager and Sam Menelle, captains, will kick horns on the base ball grounds, near the water works, at 3.30 Wednesday afternoon.

A FULL attendance of the members of Lincoln Lodge, No. 60, F. and A. M., is urgently requested at their next regular meeting, Dec. 25. Business of importance is to be transacted. G. L. Penny, W. M.

Two lovelier days never came in winter time than Sunday and yesterday. It was bright and beautiful, with the air almost as balmy as spring time. The signal service says it will continue warm and fair to-day.

A VERY large crowd attended county court yesterday, but it was a peanut crowd. That is to say, if it made any larger investments than a pint of peanuts or gave up any of its cash, if it had any, the fact did not appear.

In the county court yesterday the will of Jonathan Owsley was admitted to probate. The old gentleman had a marriage contract with his last wife, so he gives her nothing further, but divides his property equally among his three children, after deducting advancements to them. W. A. Colley, qualified as justice of the peace in the Turnersville district, in place of H. R. Thurman, removed from the county. Road and fiduciary matters occupied the further attention of the court.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.
—Mr. Pedro Dutcher Green and Miss Cloe Blankenship, each 19, were married Sunday at T. S. Blankenship's.
—B. F. Gibson, Esq., of Montana, will marry Miss Kate Wright, a handsome young lady, at Judge Wright's to-day.

—At 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning Mr. Ed. T. England led to the altar Miss Bessie Willis Adams, the eldest daughter of Mr. Jack Adams, Jr., of Paint Lick. Rev. McKee, of Richmond, officiated. Miss Letha Cook, a Richmond beauty, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Baker, of Harrodsburg, as best man. The bride was looking as usual, beautiful, attired in a traveling cashmere of brown, hop sacking. After the ceremony they drove to Richmond, where they had a special dinner prepared at the Glyndon House and then they took the 2 o'clock train for the South.

—They met by chance on one of the beautiful gondolas that plied the lagoons at the World's Fair, did Dr. J. R. Smith, of Carmi, Ill., and Miss Levia Kelley, of New Castle, Ky., and before they parted Cupid's arrow had pierced both their hearts. Afterwards they met in the art gallery, and again on a crowded train. These meetings led to a correspondence, further meetings, and the other day the pretty little romance ended in a marriage at the home of the bride's parents in New Castle.

DEATH'S DOINGS.
—Mrs. Nannie E. Walton, wife of Dr. C. J. Walton, United States Pension Agent, died in Louisville, of pneumonia. She was 52 and the daughter of David W. Maxey, ex-State Representative from Hart county. She married Dr. Walton December 3, 1857, and yesterday a week ago the 36th anniversary of the marriage was celebrated. She was an excellent woman and her death will be deplored by friends all over the state.

—Last Tuesday Mr. Jonathan Owsley was stricken with paralysis and Saturday morning he breathed his last. He was about 65 years of age and bore the reputation of being an honest and honorable man. He was twice married, first to Miss Lynn, who bore him three children, and last to Miss Reynolds, of Pulaski, whom he married a year or two ago. Mr. Owsley had just bought a farm in Washington county and was preparing to move to it when stricken down. The remains were interred in Buffalo Cemetery Saturday.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.
—The Mt. Sterling Times reports sales of two ear loads of cattle at 4 to 4.30.
—Director when going at a 2:10 gait made strides measuring 17 feet 9 inches.
—A. B. McKinney sold to W. H. Prewitt, of Boyle, some light shippers at 34c.

—It is believed that the Louisiana sugar crop will reach 275,000 tons this year.
—Farm for sale.—Situated on pike, and well improved. Contains 90 acres. E. Pennington, Hubble.

—J. Hume Embury has sold his Waco farm of 300 acres to Monroe Lackey for $6,000.—Richmond Register.

—W. F. Henry, of Garrard, sold three hogheads of tobacco in Louisville at $5.45, $6.55 and $7.35 per hundred.
—The 19 acres of land belonging to Mrs. Hettie Peters, and lying on the Hanging Fork, was knocked down to J. H. Sowder for $1,200.

—W. W. Hays sold to Adam Pence his farm of 155 acres, the old Robert McAlister place, for $6,200, and bought of him the Bradley place on Hustonville pike, containing 7 1/2 acres, for $3,100.

—The average plantation price of cotton Dec. 1, was 6.99 cents a pound, a decline of 1.41 cents compared with the price at the same time last year. The average during the seven years preceding the last was 8.2 cents.

—When a cow is two years old, a wrinkle begins to form at the base of her horns. At three years this wrinkle is fully developed. When she is five years old another will form, and after that, one will come each year.

—Saulsbury's lease on Director's racing qualities expire Jan. 1st, and the great stallion will be returned to his owner, John Green, of Dublin, Cal., at once. The papers say that Mr. Saulsbury has secured control of the race mare, Alix, 2:07 1/2.

—A good crowd attended court yesterday, but very little business was done. No cattle were offered publicly, but a few head of butcher stuff sold privately at 2 cents. No horses or mules were put up, but several private sales of plug horses at from $12 to $46 were reported.
